

HERE AND THERE IN THE WHIRL OF SOCIETY

Daughters Of Pioneers' Ball Due on Friday

Event at Berthana This Year
Will Have New Features of Interest

Anticipating the best of success, members of the Daughters of the Pioneers are looking forward to the evening of Friday, January 21, when they will be hostesses at their annual ball at the Berthana. Following an altogether new line of entertainment, members of the board have been working earnestly during the last three weeks.

Committee members will receive guests in the lovely blue room at an informal reception. At 8:30 o'clock, information for the grand march will be given under the direction of Mrs. Belle Ross. Instead of the usual pioneer pageant and march which has always been a feature of the ball, a different program has been arranged. Little Miss Teddy Wotherspoon will entertain with a solo ballet dance. Little Miss Edna Eccles Wright will also give a solo dance. Two other dances will be given by a group of girls from the State School of the Deaf and Blind.

Music for the march will be given by Lillian Thatcher's orchestra. Both popular music and old time dance music will be given during the evening. The ball and dining room will be appropriately decorated.

Those who will stand in the receiving line are: Miss Rachel Middleton, Mrs. Ted Ballantyne, Mrs. W. H. Reed, Jr., Mrs. Clara de Packer, Mrs. H. J. Goddard, Mrs. James Pingree, Mrs. Martha Ritter, Mrs. James H. Douglas, Mrs. Ruth Evans, Mrs. Nora Patterson, Mrs. Joseph Wallace, Mrs. John McGregor, and Mrs. Irving C. Emmett.

Among the many who have been complimented guests in Ogden during the past few days was Miss Oretta Lewis, Broadway stage favorite, house guest of Mrs. M. Clyde Fulton last week-end. Miss Lewis was a former resident of Ogden, and is known by many. Preceding her visit here, she was a guest in Salt Lake at the home of her parents, Deputy County Clerk and Mrs. J. B. Lewis. Miss Lewis has won considerable popularity following a stage career of two years, and her work in several productions has received favorable comment. Miss Lewis appeared as the prima donna in Schubert's "Blossoms Around," and took the leading role in George M. Cohan's "Genius and the Crowd." She also played in "Carmen," and more recently, "Alfard," under the Schubert management. She has also played the leading role in several pictures for Elnick. As the guest of Mrs. Fulton, she was complimented at several affairs, prominent among them, being an afternoon reception and luncheon given Thursday, January 14, at the home of Mrs. Fulton, 2465 Jefferson avenue. Baskets and vases of winter flowers were used as decorations, and an afternoon of games and social entertainment, Mrs. Herbert Snyder and Mrs. James Farrington were awarded the honors. Miss Lewis received the guest prize at the conclusion of several songs given by herself, and in the afternoon, a tempting luncheon was served by the hostess. Yellow marigolds in a glass bowl, reflected in a mirror underneath were used as decorative adornment for the table. Factors and hand-painted placards were laid for the following: Miss Oretta Lewis, Mrs. Ray Blakely, Mrs. Herbert Snyder, Mrs. James Farrington, Mrs. Van Dyke, Mrs. Fred King, Mrs. Claude Kay, Mrs. F. Greenwell, Mrs. Sheila Kimball, Mrs. L. N. Fulton, Mrs. Arthur King, Mrs. Frank Burgess, Mrs. Herbert Hinley and Mrs. M. Clyde Fulton.

Miss Lewis left Sunday evening for California, where she will appear in another picture for Elnick. At the completion of the picture, Miss Lewis will return to New York to rehearse new play for the Schubert management. Miss Lewis is probably known better in Ogden as the wife of Dr. Carl MacMurphy. Following the death of her husband, Miss Lewis resumed her maiden name and went east for training, preparatory to her appearance on the stage. Her success has been due to untiring work and genius.

Mrs. Frank E. Clive was hostess to the ladies of the Heatherbell club Wednesday evening at her home on Adams avenue. Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed with pleasant entertainment. Mrs. Margaret Adams and Mrs. Mary Heywood were awarded the honors for the evening. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Jean Warner and Miss Grace Clive. Those who enjoyed the evening were: Mesdames Lizzie Moyes, Agnes Moyes, Lyle Leach, Jr., Mary Carr, Jean Simpson, Jean Anderson, Margaret Adams, Jennie Stewart, Agnes Warner, Mary Heywood, Lizzie Herrick, Bessie Clive, Miss Jean Warner, Miss Grace Clive and Miss Ruth Clive.
